

DPW EMPLOYEE NEWS AND UPDATES

The Stratham Department of Public Works is excited to introduce a group of dedicated and talented new faces to our team for both year-round and seasonal positions. To effectively manage our increased workload during the summer, we supplement our crew with seasonal staff specifically for summer operations.

Please join us in welcoming the following individuals and be sure to say hi when you see them around!

JONATHAN MORIARTY

OPERATOR/LABORER

Jon lives here in Stratham and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Marine Biology from the University of New England. In addition to his role at the DPW, he serves in the United States Coast Guard and is a father of three.

BLAIN GREENHALGH

SEASONAL GROUNDS LABORER

Blain recently graduated from Exeter High School and is starting trade school in Hampton this fall. Although he resides in Exeter, he has many connections to Stratham and has proved to be a hard worker already.

HUNTER OUTHOUSE

SEASONAL GROUNDS LABORER

Hunter also lives here in Stratham and also just graduated from Exeter High School. He brings valuable landscaping experience to the team.

TRENT LAROCE

SEASONAL GROUNDS LABORER

Trent is from East Kingston and is a graduate of St. Thomas Aquinas High School. He is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering at the University of New Hampshire.

QUINCY SUNDSTROM

SEASONAL GROUNDS LABORER

Living in Newfields, Quincy graduated from Dover High School and is studying for a Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry at the University of New Haven.

HAPPY 10 YEAR ANNIVERSARY TO CHUCK PERKINS!

We are thrilled to celebrate Chuck's 10-year anniversary with the DPW! Over the past decade, Chuck has demonstrated great commitment, exceptional skill, and a passion for the Stratham community.

Join us in congratulating Chuck on this milestone and as we thank him for his continued dedication.
