

Ozzy:

Meet Ozzy, the adventurous Bernedoodle with a heart of gold! At just 3 years old,

Ozzy has already mastered the art of living life to the fullest. With unlimited energy, he's always up for a jaunt through Stratham Hill Park, where he joyously plunges into every pond, stream, and mud puddle in sight—much to the delight of onlookers and his equally playful three human brothers.

When he's not busy exploring the great outdoors, you'll find Ozzy in his element in the backyard, engaged in epic games of ball that leave tails wagging and spirits soaring. And after a day filled with excitement, there's nothing Ozzy loves more than winding down with some quality cuddle time on the couch, where he effortlessly melts into the hearts of all who meet him.

But above all else, Ozzy's true passion lies in the realm of gastronomy, with cheese reigning supreme as his ultimate indulgence. From gruyere to cheddar, there's no cheese that Ozzy can resist.

With his irresistible charm, insatiable curiosity, and unwavering love for life, Ozzy is more than just a dog—he's a beloved member of his family, bringing boundless joy and endless laughter to all who have the privilege of knowing him.

Bean

In the quiet town of Stratham, New Hampshire, there's a gentle giant who makes every day a little brighter. Meet Bean the 3-year-old NewfyPoo. Born on May 27, 2020, Bean comes from a mix of Newfoundland and Standard Poodle, which means she's as sweet as they come with a dash of playfulness to keep things interesting. Bean's journey to her forever home began in Apple Creek, Iowa, where she was rescued and brought into the loving arms of her new family—Michael, Lisa, Christopher, and Jack. From the moment she set her paws in Stratham, Bean knew she had found her place. Her easygoing personality quickly endeared her to the whole neighborhood, and soon she was the talk of Stratham Hill Park. Speaking of Stratham Hill Park, it's Bean's favorite place to be. Each day, she goes on a grand adventure through the winding trails and open fields, always on the lookout for her most thrilling pastime: chasing squirrels. While the squirrels may keep her on her toes, Bean's gentle nature and friendly demeanor have made her a beloved companion for everyone she meets. When she's not out exploring, Bean enjoys lounging at home with her family. Whether it's cuddling on the couch or rolling over for belly rubs, she's always ready to soak up the love and attention from her humans. And let's not forget her impeccable manners—she's the kind of dog who greets everyone with a wagging tail and a friendly muzzle. She brings joy, warmth, and a touch of excitement to Stratham, making every day feel a little more special. With her lovable personality and her family's unwavering support, Bean is not just a dog—she's a cherished member of the community, a friend to all, and a testament to the beauty of rescue dogs finding their forever homes.
