Stratham Library Announces New Director

Kerry Cronin Chosen to Lead Wiggin Memorial Library

STRATHAM, NH – The Wiggin Memorial Library is proud to announce our new library director, Kerry Cronin. A library professional with almost 30 years of experience, most recently Cronin was the director of the nearby Newmarket Public Library. Previously, she headed the Concord (MA) Free Public Library and the Rye (NH) Public Library.

“I have long admired the innovative services at the Wiggin Memorial Library and am thrilled to have been selected to lead this vibrant community library,” said Cronin. “In the coming months, I look forward to meeting many residents, hearing their ideas for services, and collaborating with the dedicated library staff and Board of Trustees to deliver on those expectations.”

Cronin holds a Master of Public Administration (Suffolk University) and a Master of Library Science (Rutgers University). Her undergraduate degree in English is from the University of New Hampshire.

“The Board of Trustees is thrilled to welcome Kerry to the library,” said Board Chair Susan Wilbur. “We are so impressed with her passion and dedication to libraries and her track record of community involvement. We look forward to her leadership in continuing to provide excellent services to our community.”

The library will formally introduce Ms. Cronin to the community on Monday, February 13, with a small reception from 5:30-7PM. All are welcome to attend.

The Wiggin Memorial Library is the public library serving the town of Stratham, NH, population 7,662.
